CONTINUING THE CONVERSATION

BRING IT HOME!

---

AGE GROUPS

1. How can we best group girls by age to meet their developmental needs and provide greater differentiation of experience? What are the strengths and weaknesses of the current age groups? What would you change? Why?

AGE LEVEL NAMES

2. Upwards of “Daisy Girl Scout” and “Brownie Girl Scout”, what age level names might inspire diverse girls and provide a “ladder” that defines Girl Scouting as the pre-eminent leadership experience for girls today? What are the strengths and weaknesses of “Junior”, “Cadette” and “Senior”? What new ideas would you suggest? Why?

PRODUCTS TO INTERPRET THE EXPERIENCE

3. What are your ideas about print products, awards, web technologies and clothing items that will excite girls and engage them in the unique Girl Scout Experience? Of all the currently available products, what do you like best? Why?

THE STUDIO 2B APPROACH

4. What have been your successes and challenges with the STUDIO 2B approach? At what age group does the STUDIO 2B approach appeal most to girls? Why? What elements of the STUDIO 2B approach are important to incorporate going forward?
